

A) Unique Variability explained by humans per climate zone

B) Spatial distribution of records per continent, where the size of circles is unique variability

C) Temporal variability of human impact (temporal variation of case scores). dashed lines represent change points per continent.

